

Bridging Language Barriers Symposium: Program

09:00-09:15 Welcome

09:15-10:15 Keynote lecture 1, Prof Ingrid Gogolin, Hamburg University, Language diversity as an asset for teaching and learning: theoretical considerations and empirical indications

10:15-10:45 Tea break

10:45-12:45 Panel 1: Educating diverse student populations

- Susan Poetsch, Sydney University, Linguaging their learning: How children work their languages for classroom learning
- Hanne Brandt, Hamburg University, Language Learning in the Mainstream Classroom: Social Science Teachers' Approaches and Attitudes
- Miriam Faine, Monash University, Student experiences in the superdiverse university
- Stephen Doherty, University of New South Wales, and Jan-Louis Kruger, Macquarie University, Bridging language barriers in educational settings using subtitles for first and second language students

12:45-13:45 Lunch

13:45-14:00 Transition

14:00-15:00 Keynote lecture 2, Prof Drorit Lengyel, Hamburg University, Home languages and home language instruction in the German education system

15:00-15:30 Tea break

15:30- 16:00 Individual paper: Haidee Kruger, Macquarie University, The double-edged sword of translation: Language-in-education policy, publishing languages, and translated children's books in South Africa

16:00-17:30 Panel 2: Multilingualism in institutions

- Ruth Arber and Michiko Weinmann, Deakin University, Orientating languages: Navigating multilingual spaces
- Tobias Schroedler, Hamburg University, Multilingual Practices in a German Institution: A case study of multilingualism amongst staff in Hamburg University
- Amanda Miller Amberber, Australian Catholic University, Language therapy in the first versus second language for multilinguals with aphasia: effectiveness and barriers to treatment

17:30-18:00 Close

Twitter: #LOTM2017

Access the program online: www.languageonthemove.com