

Intercultural Communication

A Critical Introduction

Ingrid Piller

May 2011 • 208pp • Pb 978 0 7486 3284 8 • £24.99 • special offer £20.00

'Ingrid Piller's book will be seen as a landmark in a 'second wave' of studies on intercultural communication. Solidly grounded in discourse analysis and sociolinguistics, clearly and accessibly written and compellingly argued, it revives a field not always well served by its scholars, and we are now at last in a position to see intercultural communication for what it is: a historically situated and politically sensitive complex of communication modes, analysis of which requires attention to the smallest details as well as to the biggest things in the world - globalization processes.'

Jan Blommaert, Tilburg University

Combining discourse analytic and sociolinguistic perspectives, this introduction provides students with a comprehensive, up-to-date and critical overview of the field of intercultural communication.

Key Features:

- Case studies from around the world
- Learning objectives, key points, exercises and suggestions for further reading in each chapter
- Reader-friendly, accessible style

Ingrid Piller is Professor of Applied Linguistics at Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia.
